

SUES FOR HIS WINE.

Seizure of Spirits Leads to a $10,000
Damage Suit.

THE CIRCUIT COURT OF APPEALS.

Opinions Handed Down Yesterday
In a Number of Cases—Causes to Be Heard—A Number of Lawyers
Qualify.

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals convened yesterday for its May term, with Judges Goff, Simonton, and Hughes on the bench.

The only case argued was that of an action instituted in the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of South Carolina by Anania Cantlin, defendant in error, vs. Theodore S. Callender, Charles B. Swan, R. Hagan Pepper, and Charles B. McDonald, plaintiffs in error, for the recovery of damages. Mr. William A. Barber, Attorney-General of South Carolina, argued the case for the plaintiff in error, and Theodore G. Barker, of Charleston, S. C., for the defendant.

The suit was to recover damages to the amount of $10,000, for the action of several revenue officers, who entered Anania Cantlin's place of business and forcibly seized a lot of wine.

The complaint sets forth three causes of action:

That the plaintiffs in error, combining, confederating, and agreeing to injure defendant in error, forcibly entered and searched his place of business in Charleston, S. C., in violation of his rights, and to the injury of his business and reputation, and other wrongs committed, to his damage of $10,000.

That the plaintiffs in error forcibly and maliciously entered his place of business with an armed body of men, and with threats caused him to open his doors, and assaulted, terrified, and overpowered him, and disturbed the peace of his family, and against his protest forcibly and maliciously searched his house and carelessly away sixty packages of wine, of the value of $14.25, to his damage of $10,000.

The third cause of action sets forth that at the time his house was thus forcibly entered his wife was in a very delicate state of health, and that she was so terrified that she was placed in a precarious condition, and suffered much as a result.

An opinion in the case will not be rendered until the next term.

EVIL-DOERS IN HENRICO.

The Galilee Baptist Church Trouble
Aired Again.

The troubles stirred up in the Galilee Baptist church by Rev. Robert Kemp, the Cuban negro who has just been released from jail, seem never-ending. Yesterday, as a result of the broils which have been going on for weeks, John L. Coles swore out a warrant for the arrest of Nicholas Booker, the church clerk, whom he charged with having disturbed religious worship at the church. The case was tried before Justice Thomas at the county court-house, and Nicholas Booker then swore out a warrant against Coles, charging him with perjury.

Justice Vincent yesterday issued a summons for Owen O'Neil, who conducts a bar-room, on the Mechanicsburg turnpike, just beyond the city limits, and who is charged with keeping his bar open last Sunday. The case will be tried next Monday.

Workmen began yesterday tearing down the old Treasurer's office building of Henrico county. The old court-house building has been almost razed, and as soon as the ground can be cleared of the old bricks and timbers work on the new building will be begun.

The Circuit Court Judge, Willard presiding, was in session only a short time yesterday morning. The day's routine business was disposed of, and an adjournment was taken until to-day.

DO YOU KNOW

We Used to Be a High-Priced Shop!

Yes, a dozen years ago, in New York, we wouldn't look at a man under $40 for a suit. No indeed, and if he'd tell of shops where nice ones were made at $16 and $18 we'd smile, and say "fudge," just as the high-priced tailors do to-day.

We got an idea once—it was that everybody would wear Tailor-Made garments if prices for good
